The website contains videos that generally describe, the differences between investment advisers and broker-dealers and how they get paid.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?	Conversation Starters
We offer investment advisory and financial planning services to retail investors, such as you. The investment advisory services we can offer include portfolio management services using one of the portfolios designed by BCM. All of portfolios offer economically diversified investment allocations consisting of exposure to stocks, bonds and gold. None of the portfolios offer products that are proprietary to BCM. As part of our investment advisory services, we will monitor your accounts on a daily basis, perform quarterly reviews of your account holdings, and rebalance the portfolios as needed. We will manage your advisory account on a discretionary basis, which means we will implement transactions without seeking prior consent from you. The stated minimum account size for portfolio management services is $250,000. The financial planning services offered by BCM takes a goals-based approach in developing a financial plan, based on the financial goals identified by a client. More information about our services can be found in Item 4 and 7 of our Form ADV, Part 2 which can be accessed on our website at www.bcm-advisors.com.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Given my current financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? What fees will I pay?	Conversation Starter
Our investment management fees are calculated and paid quarterly, in arrears, based on an annual rate that ranges between 1% and 0.50% per year, depending on the value of your account. Fees are deducted directly from your account. You will incur fees and expenses charged by mutual funds and ETFs owned by you in your account. You will also be responsible for all transaction, brokerage, and custodian fees incurred as part of your account management, as well as, margin accounts fees, wire transfer fees, early trade settlement fees and other similar fees. BCM will offer financial planning services to you if you maintain a minimum account size of $500,000. The fees for the financial planning services are included in the investment management fees above. BCM does not receive any other compensation for its financial planning services, either directly or indirectly. More information on the fees that you will incur with BCM can be found in Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A, which can be accessed on our website at www.bcm-advisors.com. For both investment management and financial planning services, a conflict of interest exists when we encourage you to add money to your account since the	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. amount of our fees increase as a result of the increase in the value of your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.
What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	Conversation Starter
When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. There is an incentive for us to recommend that you add money to your account since the amount of our fees increase as a result of the increase of the value of your account. Adherence to our fiduciary duty to you mitigates this conflict since we only make that recommendation if, after due consideration, we believe that recommendation is in your best interest, considering your goals and objectives.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?
How do you or your financial professionals make money?
Our financial professionals who are owners of the firm are compensated on a percentage of the profits of the firm. Non-owner professionals are compensated either on a salary basis, or under a fee sharing arrangement based on the clients that they are responsible for providing supervisory services. For those professionals that receive compensation based on a fee sharing arrangement, a conflict of interest exists since a recommendation by these professionals that you add money to your account increases the amount of compensation received by those professionals as a result of the increase of the value of your account.
Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?	Conversation Starter
No. Our firm has no reportable disciplinary events to disclose. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research BCM Advisors, LLC and our financial professionals.	As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
